Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Reference is made to my letter dated March 21, 1978, to you.

Processing of the New Orleans Field Office files pertaining to the above has been completed. This material consists of 4,832 pages, and is being forwarded to you, along with inventories, under separate cover, in two boxes on today's date.

For your information, data pertaining to Clay Shaw's and David Ferrie's involvement in the investigation of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy or in District Attorney Jim Garrison's investigation into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, was channelled into the New Orleans Field Office files regarding these investigations and no separate files as such were maintained on Clay Shaw or David Ferrie.

Some documents surfaced during processing which originated in or contained information obtained from other governmental agencies. These documents have been referred to those agencies for a determination as to the releasability of information therein. Upon receipt of these documents, you will be advised accordingly.

Mr. Harold Weisberg

We are currently processing the Dallas Field Office special index of 5x8 cards. Every effort is being made to process and furnish you a copy of this special index as soon as possible.

You have thirty days from receipt of this letter to appeal to the Associate Attorney General from any denial contained herein. Appeals should be directed in writing to the Associate Attorney General (Attention: Office of Privacy and Information Appeals), Washington, D. C. 20530. The envelope and the letter should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Appeal" or "Information Appeal."

Sincerely yours,

Allen H. McCreight
